

DETECTIVE BURNS TELLS HIS STORY

He Takes Stand at Trial of Alleged Union "Dynamiters."

EXPLAINS DELAYED ARRESTS

Wanted to Capture Men Higher Up as Well as Ones Who Did Work.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Indianapolis, Ind., November 30.—W. J. Burns, a story of his pursuit of the McNamara and Orrie E. McManigal after the Los Angeles Times explosion was told by him at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today.

At the time of the explosion, Burns said, he was on a train from San Francisco to Los Angeles, and the next day he was employed by Major Alexander, of Los Angeles, to run down the dynamiters. He remained on the Pacific Coast until the latter part of December, when he returned to Chicago. In Chicago, he said, he met Herbert S. Hockin, now secretary of the Iron Workers' Union. Hockin is accused by the government of having betrayed the dynamiters, while he himself was a dynamiter.

Mr. Burns in substance testified: "Hockin told me he would not have met me were it not for the fact that the dynamiters were going to do a lot of killing. He said John J. McNamara, then secretary of the union, had employed James B. McNamara and McManigal to kill as many people as possible to bring about the result he hoped for. I asked Hockin where he got his information that people on the Pacific Coast were going to blow me up. He said Olaf A. Tveitmo, of San Francisco, was looking after the plot. I told him I believed Tveitmo would do it if he had a chance, for I had opposed Tveitmo in the San Francisco graft investigation, and I had sent my son, Raymond, to Minnesota to get a photograph of Tveitmo in the penitentiary uniform and had it published in San Francisco.

"I asked Hockin if it were not of time to properly reduce your weight.

"Unhappy May" writes: "I suffer constantly with headache, indigestion and kidney trouble. My skin is pimply and oily."

Answer: Three grain sulphur tablets (not sugar tablets) is the best known remedy for the blood. They are made from sulphur, cream of tartar and herb medicines which act directly on the blood, purifying it, thus causing the pimples to disappear and the skin to become fresh and healthy looking. These sulphur tablets are packed in sealed tubes and can be bought at any drug store. They will also cure your kidney trouble and indigestion.

"Mrs. O." writes: "The best remedy for bedwetting in children is to give them 10 to 15 drops in water before meals of the following: Tincture cubeb, 1 dram; tincture rhubarb, 2 drams; and comp. fluid balsam-wort, 1 oz."

"Audrey" writes: "For the past year I have suffered greatly with catarrh. It has affected my blood, stomach and bowels to such an extent that I suffer constantly. Can you tell me a cure?"

Answer: I heartily recommend the use of antiseptic vaginal powder for the cure of catarrh. First ask your druggist for a 2 oz. package of vaginal powder; then thoroughly cleanse the nostrils with the following wash: One-half teaspoonful of the powder to a pint of warm water. Use this several times a day by snuffing the water from the palm of the hand through the nostrils; after which make a bath by mixing a teaspoonful of vaginal powder with one ounce of lard or vaseline and apply to the nostrils daily. Have treatment for the stomach, bowels and blood should be used. Syrup sarsaparilla comp., 4 oz.; comp. fluid balsam-wort, 1 oz.; full eat, bursh, 1 oz. Mix and shake well and take a teaspoonful four times a day.

"Sorrowful Mary" writes: "My scalp is covered with dandruff. My hair is oily and falling out. Please help me so that I may look like other girls."

Answer: You can very easily "look like other girls" if you will get at the drug store a 4 oz. jar of plain yellow mercural and use it regularly according to the directions given. It will cure your dandruff and make your hair soft and fluffy and make it grow. This treatment differs from all others, and have actually seen the most wonderful transformations when people have used this only two or three times.

"Ann" writes: "Could you prescribe something to increase my weight? I am tall and thin to such an embarrassing degree that I frequently subjected to slighting remarks."

Answer: Hypocucane tablets have been prescribed with great success as indicated by gratifying letters from hundreds of girls who suffer as you do. These tablets can be purchased in sealed packages from any well-stocked drug store, and full directions are given inside. These should be taken regularly for about two months, and you will be surprised to note the color in your cheeks and lips and your weight will increase from 25 to 30 pounds.

"Mrs. G." writes: "Please prescribe a safe treatment for reducing flesh. I am getting too stout for comfort, but I have always been afraid to try anything."

Answer: A reliable and quick acting formula for reducing weight is: Aromatic elixir, 6 oz.; glycol arborescens, 1 oz. Mix, shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after each meal for three days, then take two teaspoonfuls. Continue a sufficient length

Angelo explosion I had informed Mayor Alexander that John J. McNamara and Tveitmo were behind the explosion. I impressed him with the fact that I did not want to arrest John J. and James B. and depend on their making confessions, and I was afraid to watch J. J. at Indianapolis too much, as they might learn of it, and the whole thing would blow up."

Questioned by Senator John W. Kern, for the defense, about getting McManigal's first confession in Chicago shortly after the arrests, Burns was asked:

"Did McManigal implicate any one besides the McNamaras?"

"He mentioned only Michael Young, of Boston, in connection with the explosion at Springfield, Mass., and he implicated Hockin as having procured nitroglycerin and as having employed him to blow up a building in Detroit."

District Attorney Miller stated that only one more witness for the government would be called on Monday, and then the government would rest its case.

Taft's Proposal IS DISAPPROVED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Washington, November 30.—President Taft's proposition to grant Cabinet members privileges as lawmakers met with vigorous disapproval to-night among members of Congress.

Representative Burleson, Democrat, Texas, one of the House leaders, suggested that Cabinet officers, if such a plan were adopted, be required to submit to election as in the English governmental system.

"I believe the sentiment of the American people," Burleson declared, "would be that all men who aid in the enactment of legislation that affects the people should be elected by the people."
